1997 AAAI Spring Symposium on Ontological Engineering
Table of Contents

Preliminary Schedule iii

The Neutral Representation Project
M. Barley, P. Clark, K.Williamson, S. Woods 1

The Ontology of Tasks and Methods
B. Chandrasekaran, J. R. Josephson 9

Iterative Refinement of Knowledge-Bases with Consistency Properties
S. Correl, B. Porter 17

Reuse of an Ontology in an Electrical Distribution Network Domain
H. Dalianis, F. Persson 25

METHONTOLOGY: From Ontological Art Towards Ontological Engineering
M. Fernandez, A. Gomez-Perez, N. Juristo 33

Use of an Accounting Object Infrastructure for Knowledge-Based Enterprise Models
G. Geerts, W. McCarthy 41

Using Ontologies for the Integrated Product Model Development
H. Grabowski, E. Meis 50

Some Organizing Principles for a Unified Top-Level Ontology
N. Guarino 57

Knowledge Representation with MESNET — a Multi-layered Extended Semantic Network
H. Helbig, M. Schultz 64

Modeling Method Ontologies: A Foundation for Enterprise Model Integration
C. Menzel 73

The State of the Art in Ontology Design: A Comparative Review
N. Fridman Noy, C. Hafner 84

JTF-ATD Core Plan Representation: a Progress Report
A. Pease, T. Carrico 95

Experience Building a Large, Re-usable Medical Ontology using a Description Logic with Transitivity and Concept Inclusions
A. Rector, I. Horrocks 100

A Constructivist Approach to the Difficulties of Ontological Engineering
S. Regoczei 108

How We Might Reach Agreement on Shared Ontologies: A Fundamental Approach
D. Skuce 114

An Ontology for Constructing Scheduling Systems
S. Smith, M. Becker 120

Mapping German Word Senses onto a Core Ontology to Create a Multilingual Language Engineering Resource
R. Sutcliffe, O. Christ, A. McElligott, C. Stoeckert, U. Heid, H. Feldweg 130

Toward Distributed Use of Large-Scale Ontologies
B. Swartout, R. Patil, K. Knight, T. Russ 138

Distributed Ontology Development Environment for Multi-agent Systems
M. Takaai, H. Takeda, T. Nishida 149

Ontological Engineering with Principled Core Ontologies
A. Valente, J. Breuker 154

An Analysis of Ontology Mismatches: Heterogeneity versus Interoperability
P. Visser, D. Jones, T. Bench-Capon, M. Shave 164

Run-Time Classification of Agent Services
P. Weinstein, W. Birmingham 173

The Design and Use of an Ontology for Complex Artifacts
K. Wimmer 181
